

Our Code of Conduct

All those who work at Chelmer Valley whether as students or as adults do so in the knowledge that their rights will be promoted and safeguarded. The following code of conduct states the high standards that we expect from everyone to ensure our safety and well-being. When these are not adhered to, consequences will be applied.

Respecting Others

- ✓ These are positive ways of behaving which make everyone feel good about you and themselves.

BULLYING AND VERBAL ABUSE WILL NOT BE TOLERATED; NEITHER WILL FOUL LANGUAGE, RACIST, SEXIST OR OTHER OFFENSIVE COMMENTS AND/OR ACTIONS

Respecting The School Environment

- ✓ Take care of our environment. We all have to live and work here.

Respecting The Community

- ✓ Even when outside the school you represent those people who work and study here. Show your respect for them and our community in the considerate way you always behave.

Health and Safety

- ✓ Take care of yourself and others as you move sensibly around the school.
- ✓ The school is not insured for losses and it cannot be responsible for them.
- ✓ The school has a legal responsibility for you whilst you are here. Therefore leaving the school premises may only be with the permission of a teacher.

Personal Image

- ✓ School is your work place. Dress appropriately.

Positive Attitude

- ✓ Come prepared and equipped to work and learn.
